INCREDIBLE ASUS STORIES

The durability of ASUS products has been tested — and proven — in some of the most challenging environments imaginable. Below are just a few incredible, real-life ASUS stories.

Outperforming competitors through 600 days in outer space

R & K, a major supplier of computers and electronic equipment for aeronautical missions to outer space, provided MIR Space Station astronauts with two ASUS notebooks for their 600-day stint in space. “The ASUS notebooks never overheated like some of the devices made by other companies,” said Russian cosmonaut Sergei Avdeev.

First to reach the tallest peak in Antarctica

On December 16, 2003, acclaimed mountaineers Shi Wang and Jian Liu embarked on an expedition to the summit of Mount Vinson — the tallest peak in Antarctica — where temperatures are known to drop below minus 100 degrees Fahrenheit. The device they chose to take with them was an ASUS S200N notebook.

First To Reach The Top Of Mount Everest

For a Mount Everest expedition, a mountaineering team selected a series of ASUS notebooks—the ASUS U5, ASUS S6, ASUS W7 and ASUS U1—as their devices of choice. At the base camp elevation of 5,000m above sea level, other notebooks failed to boot up, due to extremely low ambient temperature; however, the ASUS notebooks functioned without incident. Expedition team leader, Captain Wang Yongfong, took an ASUS U5 notebook with him to the peak: At 8,848m above sea level, an ASUS notebook became the first in the world to reach the top of Mount Everest.

1. Weight may vary according to configuration. 2. Optional specification. 3. Actual battery life may vary depending on product configuration, usage, operational conditions and power management settings. Battery life will decrease over the lifetime of the battery. 4. The same device will offer differing levels of available storage depending on the chosen RAID level. If RAID 0 is used, the system combines the capacity of all SSDs in order to enhance data-transfer speeds. The available storage will equal the combined physical capacity of all the SSDs on the device. However, if the device is configured with RAID 1, two copies of the data are saved simultaneously in order to protect your data if one SSD fails. As a result, the available storage capacity will be half of the combined physical storage capacity, as half the storage is used for backup copies. For example, a device with two 1 TB SSDs in a RAID 0 configuration will have 2 TB of available storage capacity, but with RAID 1 the available storage capacity will be 1 TB.
